

CAMPING CHECK LIST

The Boy Scout motto is "Be Prepared!" These are the basic items that every scout needs to bring on a camping trip.

- External frame backpack
- Sleeping bag and ground pad
- Mess kit, utensils and cup
- Scout Handbook and pencil
- Matches
- Compass
- Flashlight
- Water bottle
- Wipes and Toilet paper
- Camping pillow
- Hiking boots
- Rain Poncho
- Extra set of weather appropriate clothing:
 - Underwear
 - Sox
 - Pants
 - Shirt
 - Footwear
 - Hat
 - Gloves
 - etc...
- Rope for knot tying.
- Toothbrush and paste.
- Hand sanitizer
- Personal food items (If desired):
 - Healthy snack (i.e., energy bar)
 - Powered drink mix
 - Hot Chocolate or Tea bags
 - Sweetener
- Scout Spirit!
 - A scout should always come on a trip with a positive attitude and be ready to work together with the Patrol Leaders, adults and each other.

What not to bring:

- Cell Phones: This item is not necessary since adults carry them in case of emergencies. The phone can be a distraction and can be easily lost. If any issue should occur you will be contacted by a troop leader. Always assume we have arrived at our destination safely.
- Video games (i.e., Game Boys, PSP, etc...)
